Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Sunday 28 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Chilly overnight. Mainly dry and sunny on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry this evening. The rest of the night will remain dry with mostly clear skies, some frost and fog patches. Cloudier across the far northwest and Northern Isles.

Monday:
Overnight fog burning off in the morning. Otherwise dry and sunny, some low cloud may develop across the far east later. Cloudier across Shetland with chance of a light shower.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Staying dry on Tuesday and Wednesday, some low cloud across central and eastern areas at times. A few showers in the north on Thursday. Overnight frost.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.